Most filing systems take too long to file and require unnecessary maintenance. It's no wonder most of us are afraid of filing! FreedomFiler's self-purging home filing system does the work of managing files for you. After setting up your system, you will never again have to set aside time to clear out and reorganize files! You can imagine that you've checked off that nagging to-do from your list for the rest of your life. FreedomFiler's remarkably simple system instantly locates the papers you need by keeping out the ones you don't need. Using optimal folder names, FreedomFiler makes filing paper in most cases as easy as dropping it in the trash. You'll simply never want to file any other way.
